DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claim have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Wells, US 2004/0057624.

In considering claim 16,

Wells discloses an integrated video decoder 202 (Figs 3-8) which includes the decompression engine, which also includes a deinterlacer and scaler (para 0014, 0016), wherein the scaler is met by post processing stage 206.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Reitmeir, US 6,549,240.

In considering claim 16,

- a) the claimed video decoder...is met by video decoder 120 (Fig 1)
- b) the claimed decompression engine...is met by video decoder which decompress a received compressed signal (Fig 1)
- c) the claimed a deinterlacer...is met by deinterlacer 130 (Fig 1).
- d) the claimed a display engine/scaler...is met by controller 200 and horizontal resizer 150 and vertical resizer 140 which scale the deinterlaced image.

However Reitmeir does not disclose that the video decoder includes the deinterlacer and display engine, though the decoder does include the claimed decompression engine.

As recently decided by the Supreme Court in KSR vs Teleflex, if a person of ordinary skill in the art can implement a predictable variation, and would see the benefit of doing so a 130 rejection likely bars it's patentability.

The premise of making integral, In re Larson, 340 F.2d 965, 967, 144 USPQ 347, 349 (CCPA 1965); In re Wolfe, 251 F.2d 854, 855, 116 USPQ 443, 444 (CCPA 1958) has been established has being obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to integrate components, thus providing a predictable (i.e. expected) outcome/result.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to realize the elements within a device/receiver may be combined (i.e. integrated) or isolated (i.e. separate components) wherein the result of either selection provides expected results, and therefore is not patentable over the prior art.

Conclusion

- 4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure—see newly cited references.
- 5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Retrieval (PAIR) and the Electronic Filing System (EFS).

PAIR (<http://pair.uspto.gov>) provides customers direct secure access to their own patent application status information, as well as to general patent information publicly available. EFS allows customers to electronically file patent application documents securely via the Internet. EFS is a system for submitting new utility patent applications and pre-grant publication submissions in electronic publication-ready form. EFS includes software to help customers prepare submissions in extensible Markup Language (XML) format and to assemble the various parts of the application as an electronic submission package. EFS also allows the submission of Computer Readable Format (CRF) sequence listings for pending biotechnology patent applications, which were filed in paper form.
